

Serikali ya Tanzania imezisikia tuhuma zisizo za kweli kutoka kwa mgombea Urais wa chama cha NRPUP nchini Zambia, Bw. Brian Mundubile, kwamba Tanzania imetuma watu kwenda nchini Zambia kwa lengo la kuingiliana kuvuruga uchaguzi wa nchi hiyo uliofanyika tarehe 13 Agosti, 2026.

Serikali imezichukulia kwa uzito tuhuma hizo na kupitia Ubalozi wa Tanzania nchini Zambia imeiandikia Serikali ya Zambia kutaka maelezo ya kina juu ya kwa nini mgombea huyu amezusha tuhuma hizo zisizo na ukweli.

Serikali ya Tanzania inawahakikishia Watanzania na Jumuiya ya Kimataifa kuwa haijatuma mtu yeyote kuingilia au kuvuruga uchaguzi wa Zambia na haina utamaduni huo.

Kama ilivyo kwa nchi zingine za Jumuiya ya Maendeleo Kusini mwa Afrika (SADC) Tanzania inao uwakilishi wa waangalizi wa uchaguzi huo ambao wanafanya kazi kulingana na miongozo ya waangalizi wa uchaguzi wa SADC sambamba na waangalizi wengine waliopo Zambia na sio kuingilia uchaguzi kama ilivyotuhumiwa na Bw. Brian Mundubile.

The Government of Tanzania is concerned with the false allegations made by the NRPUP Presidential Candidate in Zambia, Mr. Brian Mundubile, claiming that Tanzania sent individuals to Zambia with the intention of interfering with and disrupting the country's general elections held on 13th August 2026.

The Government takes these allegations seriously and through the Tanzanian High Commission in Zambia, has written to the Government of Zambia seeking detailed clarification on the basis upon which the candidate made these unfounded allegations.

The Government of Tanzania wishes to reassure Tanzanians and the international community that it has not sent anyone to interfere with or disrupt Zambia's elections and has no such practice.

As is the case with other member states of the Southern African Development Community (SADC), Tanzania has a representation of election observers in Zambia who are carrying out their duties in accordance with SADC election observation guidelines, alongside other observers present in Zambia. Their role is to observe the electoral process and not to interfere in the elections, as alleged by Mr. Brian Mundubile.
